All the songs in this collection are stories of journeys- some actual, some imaginary, some symbolic, and some aspirational. No matter how many miles we travel, the joys or squabbles that occur along the way, or whether our final destination ever comes into sight, our paths are always shaped- and our lives forever changed- by those we meet along the road.

This album is dedicated to all my fellow travelers, and especially to JoAnn (we've come a long way since you first rode shotgun in the Chevy Nova!).
